

NewsFlash!

Announcement: The National Science Foundation (NSF) has announced that the Fall 2016 NSF Grants Conference Plenary (General) Sessions will be webcast live at no cost to the research community. University research faculty and staff are encouraged to virtually attend. NSF staff will speak to the state of current funding; review new and current policies and procedures; and provide updates on pertinent administrative issues.

You can expect to learn about:

- New Programs and Initiatives
- Proposal Preparation
- NSF's Merit Review Process
- Conflict of Interest Policies
- Award Administration
- NSF Faculty Early Career Program

The live webcast of the conference will be held on November 14-15, 2016. You can view the full webcast agenda for additional information or to see scheduled times (please note that all times are EST).

To register, click here. Webcast login information will be emailed to registrants on Thursday, November 10th. These sessions will also be recorded for on-demand viewing once the conference has concluded. Presentations will also be available on the conference website.

If you have any questions regarding the live webcast, please contact grants_conference@nsf.gov, or feel free to reach out to your DCG Officer in the Department of Contracts and Grants.
