

REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS
JAMES H. ZUMBERGE FACULTY RESEARCH & INNOVATION FUND
DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION (D&I) IN RESEARCH AWARD

APPLICATION DEADLINE 5 pm, Monday, January 13, 2020

PURPOSE

Diversity in research is a key component of innovation. It enhances the creative process by bringing to the table new concepts and points of view and contributes to a culture of transformative scholarship. The Zumberge Diversity and Inclusion (D&I) in Research Award solicitation is aimed at supporting research and scholarship that addresses critical gaps in knowledge on equity, diversity, and inclusion, or which benefits diverse communities. To achieve these goals, the Zumberge D&I in Research Award provides up to $30,000 in pilot research support.

To be considered for this award, applications must:

- plan to apply for an externally-funded grant on an eligible topic;
- provide a realistic plan for sustained funding or support beyond the end of the award;
- demonstrate that a Zumberge award will make a difference in attracting further external research support.

The concept of diversity includes, but is not limited to, characteristics such as national origin, language, race, color, disability, ethnicity, gender, age religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, socioeconomic status, veteran status, educational background, and family structures.

TOPICS ELIGIBLE FOR FUNDING

Eligible topics include research that:

- is informed by and serves the needs of diverse communities so that the research findings reflect any unique aspects of diverse populations;
- collaborates (new or established collaborations) with minority-serving organizations, such as the USC + Los Angeles County Hospital, Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU), Minority Serving Institutions (MI) and/or local non-profit or community organizations;
- targets Training and/or Career Development grants, enhancing the number of researchers or scholars from diverse population groups who are well prepared for careers in research addressing equity, diversity, and inclusion, and/or that benefits diverse communities.

Listing of previous awardees can be found here: <https://research.usc.edu/previous-zumberge-diversity-and-inclusion-award-recipients/>

ELIGIBILITY

The Zumberge D&I in Research award does not provide financial support beyond the duration of the award, nor are grants renewable. Rather, applicants should use these grants as a step toward securing external funding or other forms of support for a sustained research program. Additionally, the Zumberge award will not fund the same work that is being funded under other provost programs or external sponsors.

Research faculty are eligible. Tenure track and non-tenure track faculty, with a research profile, are eligible. Individuals who are visiting faculty are not eligible to apply. Among eligible faculty, potential for future external funding is an important consideration in making awards.

Previous Provost's Research Grant Award Recipient. Faculty who have previously received a Zumberge D&I Award are not eligible to apply.

The program will not fund the same work that is being funded under other Provost programs or the Clinical and Translational Science Institute (CTSI).

Applicants may also apply to the Zumberge Individual award program during the same award cycle (pending eligibility criteria); however, proposals may not address the same research question or scholarly work.

Awardees must commit to submit a proposal application to the identified external funding opportunity between January 1, 2021 and December 31, 2021.

RESEARCH PROPOSAL EVALUATIONS

Research proposals submitted to the James H. Zumberge Faculty Research & Innovation Fund are evaluated by interdisciplinary faculty panels. Typically, the reviewers will be USC faculty members; however, when the necessary expertise does not reside on campus, external reviewers may be used.

Grant Proposals will be evaluated by referees with expertise in the area of research and by the Office of Research. In reviewing research grant requests, the referees will consider:

- a) The potential impact on diversity research and practice and the potential for encouraging further research in diversity at USC, and/or the potential benefit to community members or collaborating organizations;
- b) Likelihood that the research will receive external funding;
- c) Intrinsic significance and originality of the proposed research;
- d) The project design (to effectively carry out the proposed work);

REPORTING AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF SUPPORT

Zumberge D&I in Research awardees are asked to submit a brief report by October, 2020 (including an accounting of expenditures and any external support received). A formal request for the final report will be sent to awardees at the close of the grant period, indicating required information.
